

Misc.

Additional duties include teaching family life classes, performing first responder training, evaluating and attending to injuries as they occur, doing phone consultations, educating parents, and documenting all tasks and medications administered.

